

I am extremely upset that you are even considering to allow increased ownership of media by corporate interests. Current corporate ownership of media (i.e. General Electric and MSNBC) already seriously erodes trust in the public. The media is supposed to be for the people and eliminating further competition will further work against the public receiving FAIR AND BALANCED information. You should be writing rules prohibiting all corporate ownership of media, rather than allowing more.

Thank you,

Richard Pressinger

Teacher - Durham, North Carolina